CCHS TAKES ON EUROPE

Two groups of students from CHS went to Europe this summer. Mrs. Laffey and Mrs. Neps chaperoned a group that toured Spain, France, and England. The students that attended this outing were: Amy Cutright, Lynne Dyer, Dawn Grimes, Laura Michel, Brook Maddox, Wendy Reynolds, and Greg Stirrett. Tim Blake, Darren Korneman, Jeff Pister, Thom Miller, Gary Short, and Rustin Welton joined Mr. Zartler on an excursion to West Germany, Lichtenstein, Switzerland, and Austria. Both groups thoroughly enjoyed Europe; in fact, this part of the world may never be the same again!

Lower right: Laura Michels, Mrs. Laffey, and Mrs. Neps enjoy lunch at a typical sidewalk cafe.

Upper: The scenery along the Seine is breathtaking at dusk.

Lower right: The hills are alive with the sound of Rustin and Tim.

APPLAUD SQUAD RILES CROWD

Spirit was on the rise this year. The cheerleaders tried several new fund raisers and spirit contests. A jelly-bean contest was held, and the first place boy and girl were awarded a dance with the Homecoming King and Queen. The cheerleaders also held a rummage sale of old cheerleading outfits. The Applaud Squad, composed of some wild and crazy people, came out to support the Mighty Maroons.

DOING IT OUR WAY

Several new ideas were tried out at Clinton High School this year. The lunches were divided into four shifts as usual, but the lines were separated into the regular lunch and the a la carte line. The a la carte line had several new dishes featuring: pretzels, french fries, onion rings, potato bar, and a variety of salads. In physical education classes, the students choose a new area every three weeks. Some of the new activities included: bowling, floor hockey, raquetball, weight conditioning, and table tennis.

Upper right: Lisa Brady, Polly Schumaker, and Anna Skarin eagerly await the pep assembly.

Lower right: Barbara Schaumburg and Tracy Matthews start a tradition with Project Graduation.

WE ARE INVOLVED

Upper: Co-pilot Neps offers some navigational advice to the pilot, who flew them to Europe.

Center: Bob Nannini sports some of the latest "sophomore" fashions while enjoying a "French" lollipop.

Lower: Computer Wizards Joseph Perring, Jay Brieler, and Aravindan Velu practice for Scholastic Bowl.

HIGHLIGHTS OF "86"

There were many events that highlighted 1986. On January 20, the Nation celebrated Martin Luther King Day for the first time in history. On April 26, a nuclear reactor in Chernobyl, Russia, exploded, killing 31 people. May 25th marked Hands Across America, when 5 million Americans joined hands from ocean to ocean to raise money for the nations hungry. July 4th was the Statue of Liberty's 100th birthday. Other big names in the country this year were Jim McMahon, Whitney Houston, Tom Cruise, David Letterman, Max Headroom, Mike Tyson, and Robert Penn Warren.

Right: President Ronald Reagan and Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev met in Reykjavik, Iceland, for a two-day summit in October to discuss arms control. The two leaders reached an impasse on testing of the U.S. Star Wars weaponry. Center: They call it "crack" on the East Coast and "rock" on the West Coast. Whatever its name, this refined, smokable form of cocaine may be the most addictive narcotic ever sold on the streets of America.

Above: Britain's Prince Andrew married red-haired English commoner Sarah Ferguson in July at Westminster Abbey in a spectacle that mustered the pomp and glory of Britain's 920-year old monarchy. Right: A drought spread throughout the Southeast during 1986. It was the worst dry spell on record. At the peak of the drought, crops wilted from southern Pennsylvania all the way into northern Florida.

The city of New York gave the Statue of Liberty a big 1986 bash—a Fourth of July festival of song, celebrities and fireworks honoring the great lady's first 100 years.

New York Mets Gary Carter is lifted in the air by relief pitcher Jesse Orosco following the Met 8-5 victory over the Boston Red Sox in the seventh game of the World Series at New York's Shea Stadium.

Caroline Kennedy, who captured America's heart as a little girl romping through the White House, married Edwin Schlossberg, a New York businessman and artist, in Hyannis Port, Massachusetts, on July 19, 1986.

Upper right: Several of Mr. Coller's musicians practice for another production.

Center right: Tiffany Burns, Amy Armstrong, and Bill Hornback form their own trio.

Lower left: Tonya Torbert and Karri Schaumburg observe the "M" Squad at its best.

Anna Lena Skarin, Exchange Student from Avesta, Sweden.

Ten minutes before landing at Decatur airport, I saw the chessboard which was going to be my home the following year. My first family was Gary and Betty Riegel. Since they were very nice and friendly I felt at home very quickly.

The volleyball season started at once. Practice was a little bit different here. When I practiced at home, it was once a week for 2-5 hours at a time, I got a shock when we had practice 6 times a week for 3-5 hours at a time. It has never been so much fun to play volleyball. The team was really nice and helped me with things I did not understand. I have never seen so many people watching a game. When volleyball was over, basketball season began. I had a bit more of a problem with basketball since I did not play at home, but thanks to two patient coaches and a patient team I finally felt I knew what I was doing. In the middle of the season came Christmas, and that was the hardest time to be away from my family. The Riegels were such a nice family it was not that hard after all.

During the spring I played in the musical Oklahoma (a western girl with a Swedish accent.) All the people in the play made it one of the most learning and fun experiences of the year. After Christmas I moved to Joe and Linda Taylor's; they were easy to get along with and were so fun that the day I had to leave came much too fast. I also ran track in the spring. It was sometimes cold and sometimes too warm, but it was always fun. Thanks to many good friends and families I got to see many places like Tennessee, Alabama, Chicago, Florida, and much, much more. The year in Clinton has gone real fast; it is sad that one of my best years was so short.

ACTIVITIES

HOMEcoming SPIRITS SOAR

"Step over, Herman! Here's PEE-WEE Hoffman."

Upper right: Some of Clinton's own Roman Goddesses include: Jade Cochran, Shannon Taylor, Barb
Schaumburg, and Jill Monore.

Lower right: "Do you hear what I hear?"

The 1986 Homecoming festivities began on Monday morning when togas were to have been the attire for the day. Four daring females showed up in togas delivered directly from Rome. Tuesday was declared Pee Wee Herman Day. The one and only Bobby Hoffman came dressed in a double-breasted seersucker suit, complete with saddle shoes or penny loafers, more likely a combination of the two, a bow tie, and slicked down hair. On Wednesday most students felt quite at home in "sweats." Since these outfits are "in" in a big way now, more than twenty people took advantage of the opportunity to feel and look relaxed. Several islanders showed up on campus in beach towels for Hawaiian Day. Flowered shirts with shorts was the dominant wearing apparel. Friday is traditionally designated as Maroon and Gold Day.

Upper left: "All dressed up and no where to go!"
Lower left: "Jeff, did you mess it up again?"
Lower right: "Surf's up!"

SKIES CLEAR FOR PARADE

 Above: Kenny Eads and Shannon Taylor, 1986 Homecoming King and Queen, rode in Bob Meyer's convertible.
 Lower left: What are you doing Mr. Collier?

Upper right: Despite the rain the cheerleaders' spirits were not dampened.

Left: Jeff Harold and Amy Armstrong lined up for the school song.

RAIN FAILS TO DAMPEN HOMECOMING SPIRIT

The grand finale for the evening was a football game against St. Teresa. This year's Homecoming loss to the Bulldogs was a big disappointment to the Maroons. Clinton opened the scoring in the first quarter with a 56 yard touchdown pass from Chad Bolser to Rodney Goodwin, but the Maroons were unable to widen their lead. The Maroons scored in the third quarter on a one yard run by Scott Main; this gave them a 14-7 lead. The Bulldog defense stopped Clinton's offensive attack in the fourth quarter and scored twice themselves, handing the Maroons a 1986 Homecoming loss.

 Center: Maroon defense attacked the Bulldogs.
 Lower right: Scott Main avoided the Bulldog defense.

HOMEcoming 1986

On Saturday, October 3, the Homecoming Dance "Heaven In Your Eyes" began at 7:30 p.m. The coronation for the 1986-87 Homecoming Queen and King took place at 8:30 p.m. Only members of the senior class were eligible for the court (at right). Members of the Queen's court were Tracy Matthews, Kari Connelly, Tammy Norrington, Sonya Covey, and Shannon Taylor. Members of the King's court were Kevin Hammer, Scott Main, Corey Case, Tim Blake, and Kenny Eads.

The 1987 Sweethearts were Leslie Martin, Denise Deavers, Tammy Norrington, and Angie Cutright.

1987 SWEETHEART DANCE

The annual Sweetheart dance was held on February 6, 1987, in the high school commons. The music was provided by The Music Company, a disc-jockey duet from Champaign, Illinois. The heart-shaped cakes and punch were furnished by the Future Homemakers of America. The Student Council was in charge of decorating, with Karri Schaumburg and Julie Nothnagel as co-chairmen. Approximately 250 people were part of the festive occasion. The senior candidates were Stephanie Sellers, Keri Punches, Tracy Matthews, Kari Connelly, and Tammy Norrington, as seen at the right.

JUNIORS CHOOSE "JUST YOU & I" AS PROM THEME

"Just You and I" was the theme for the junior-senior prom, held on May 2. Approximately two hundred people attended the event, which was moved to St. John's Parish Center. The After-Prom was held at the YMCA. Some seventy or so people enjoyed racquetball, volleyball, swimming, and watching movies while they enjoyed snacks and cold drinks. Rustin Welton and Amanda Bruce were crowned king and queen.

NUMEROUS STUDENTS RECEIVE AWARDS

On Tuesday, May 12, the annual Honors Assembly was held to recognize the achievements of students during the 1986-1987 school year.

Recipients of the departmental awards were Ted Dement, agriculture; Amanda Bruce, art; Karri Schaumburg, business; Brian Adcock, social studies, English, math, and science; Rustin Welton, English; Derek Taubert, foreign language and dramatics; Rebecca Pister, home economics; Tammy Norrington, vocal music; Lorrie Stiles, instrumental music; Laura Martinek, dramatics; Robert Reed, physical education; William Gregory, computer programming; and Artie Fornshell, industrial arts.

The U.S. Department of Education's President's Academic Fitness Awards were presented to Brian Adcock, Amanda Bruce, Corey Case, Lynne Dyer, Lanette Fatheree, Bill Gregory, Darren Korneman, Nancy Poe, Paula Thrasher, Rustin Welton, and Ron Rueger.

The Broken Mirror Award was presented by Lynne Dyer, last year's recipient, to Ratna Krishna.

The "I Dare You" Award was presented to Tony Moore and Dawn Black.

Two special math awards were presented at the assembly. Tony Moore received an award for having placed the highest on a special math exam presented once a year. The Opal Marshall Math Award, which is sponsored by the Clinton Business and Professional Women, was given to Nancy Poe.

Freshmen Jay Brieler, Aravindan Kolandaivelu, Sandra Meseke, Aruna Krishna, and Scott Reeser and sophomores Brandee Bruce, Brandi Callison, Janell Korneman, Bob Nannini, and Chris Spurling scored in the top ten percent in the National Educational Development tests.

Brian Adcock, Corey Case, Lynne Dyer, Lanette Fatheree, William Gregory, and Paula Thrasher were named Illinois State Scholars for this year. In addition, Merit Scholarships of $500 also went to Brian Adcock, Amanda Bruce, Corey Case, Lynne Dyer, Lanette Fatheree, William Gregory, Kevin Hammer, Darren Korneman, Ron Rueger, Paula Thrasher, Rich Peterson, and Nancy Poe.

Many special awards were also presented. Melissa Archey was the winner of the Hugh O'Brian Ambassador of Leadership Award. Anne Thorp represented Clinton High by being chosen to attend Girls' State. Lynne Dyer was chosen as the high school's representative to the Century III Leader's Program and chosen the winner of the DAR Award. Corey Case was chosen as the WDWS Scholar/Athlete and a winner of the Army Reserve Scholar/Athlete Award. The Athletes of the Year were Russell Hickman and Shannon Taylor; Shannon was also the other winner of the Army Reserve Award. Anna-Lena Skarin was recognized as a student ambassador from Sweden. The Bausch and Lomb Science Awards went to Brian Adcock and Jill Monroe. Brian was also the recipient of the SAR Award and the Henry Kleeman Award. The Thespian Award went to Laura Martinek. Finally, Derek Taubert was honored for placing fourth in the annual Bradley University Chemistry Contest.

FRESHMAN CLASS RAISES $600

The class of 1990 participated in many activities. "Pound the Bulldogs" was the theme for this year's float, and third place was awarded for all their hard work. Many class members also sold calendars and Christmas presents. Dennis Nichols and Tracy Huston sold the most items. Dennis sold 41 items with Tracy close behind at 38 items. Together they collected over $425 to help the freshman class raise about $600 from the fund raiser. Another exciting event was the hall decorating at Christmas. After spending hours after school (some students decorated until 9 p.m.) the freshman class won the 1986 hall decorating contest. Streamers on the ceiling, glittering snowflakes on lockers, and lockers wrapped up like presents added to a good season for all the freshmen.

CANNED FOOD DRIVE FEEDS TREASURY

The sophomore class participated in the fund raiser, the homecoming float competition, and the Spring Fling.

The Class of '89 did not make as much money this year on the fund raiser, but it did make a sizeable profit selling candy.

With a large majority of the members of the class of '89 helping out, the float competition was a success. The sophomores received fourth place in the voting, but felt good about the results of their hard work.

Now aware of what the Spring Fling actually is, the Class of '89 is ready to make a good attempt at a booth for this fine fund-raising effort.

After their performance in the float competition, the sophomores wanted to raise their status! FHA sponsored a canned food drive and the sophomores donated a total of 950 cans to win the class competition!

JUNIORS

Juniors Ratna Krishna, Jason Patterson, and Stephanie Riegel fold poms for the junior float, which took second place in the annual Homecoming Parade. For the third year in a row, Darrel Tucker provided his garage to the Class of '88.

JUNIORS ENTER “GIVE THE DOG A BONE”

In addition to winning second place with their float, the junior class worked together to raise money for the prom held on May 2. The class officers, as well as numerous committee members, spent many hours in finalizing the big event.

Outstanding juniors this year included Brett Forsberg, Denise Deavers, Ratna Krishna, and Tony Moore, who were on the JETS team that advanced to State competition held in Champaign. Also Mickie Whitney received Best of Show at the Crestview Nursing Home Art Show.

Junior Class Officers: Denise Deavers, vice-president; Ratna Krishna, president; Karri Schaumburg, secretary; and Nicole Etherton, treasurer.

Inducts 19

The Charles Evans Chapter of the National Honor Society held two inductions this year, inducting four seniors in the fall and fifteen juniors and seniors in the spring. In accordance with national rules, a student must have at least a 3.2 grade point average in order to be considered for induction. Then the student must meet a certain quotient of points after which the student is inducted into the chapter.

The usual money-making project, the Spring Fling, was not held this year. However, next year's members plan to hold a money-making project at the beginning of the fall semester.

Officers: Darren Korneman, vice-president; Corey Case, president; Brian Adcock, treasurer; and Lynne Dyer, Secretary.

Officers of Thespians are Anne Thorp, president and Mandee Bruce, secretary.

THESPIANS CONTINUE TRADITION

The International Thespian Society is an educational organization which aims to advance standards of excellence in theatre arts. Thespian membership is granted for the performance of meritorious work in theatre arts participation. Thespian Troupe #3151 was chartered in 1976 and is sponsored by D. Ann Jones. Yearly activities include the fall show, the spring musical, and usually a children's show. Other activities include theatre trips to Chicago and local performances. This year the group earned money to support its theatre activities by working at the Apple and Pork Festival.

MAY 15TH—AT LAST— ONLY 100 MORE PAGES TO COMPLETE

After school had been in session a couple of weeks and schedules were finalized, the yearbook staff consisted of only six students. Two staff members recruited four study hall students to help with ad sales.

Lynne Dyer and Keri Punches were named editors, Brett Forsberg took over the financial responsibilities, and Katy Lowers organized the ad sales campaign. The only pages completed by January were the underclass "mugs." Brian Adcock joined the staff in late October and inherited the freshman pages and edited the senior section. By second semester a new staff of six began actual production. Keri took over the typing responsibilities and completed all of the indexing sheets, Lynne took home copy and layouts every weekend, and Swedish student Anna Skarin came into the class suggesting "chocolate" breaks.

In May, Keri Punches found herself busy with track and her word-processor too hot to function.

From then on it was a two-person operation, with over 100 pages still to be completed. From the day after graduation until June 24, Brian and Lynne worked days, evenings, and weekends completing those pages.

Many people are unaware of how much work is involved in preparing a 186-page publication, complete with photos, copy, captions and graphics. Several people played a role in the production of this yearbook, but two people assumed the responsibility of seeing the publication through to its completion. Without the hard work and dedication of Brian Adcock and Lynne Dyer, there would not have been a 1987 CLINTONIA.

—Doris Wunderlich, adviser

Over 50 students attended the organizational meeting, but the work force dwindled to just over 30.

F-L CLUBS UNITE

The traditional French and Spanish clubs formed The Foreign Language Club this year. They began the year by entering a float in the annual Christmas parade. The float theme was "Christmas around the World." Even though no prize was won, the float was a "winner." In February several members went to Chi-Chis and enjoyed some delicious Mexican food. Since the traditional NHS Spring Fling was not held, members did not get to fry any of their famous River Rat potatoes. The year came to a close with eight members dining with style at Stephanie in Peoria.

JETS ADVANCE TO STATE

The JETS team received the first place trophy in Class A division of regional competition at Eastern Illinois University on Saturday, March 7, 1987. Derek Taubert and Kevin Hammer received individual honors. The team advanced to the state competition at Illinois State University on March 19, 1987, and received sixth place.

J.V.'S FINISH 18-0

The Scholastic Bowl team enjoyed a better season this year than any year before. The varsity team was 36-22, while the junior varsity team was 18-0. This year, the team participated in Illinois' first Scholastic Bowl State Tournament by winning all five of their games in the Sectional tournament. The varsity team won fourth place in the league tournament, second place at Millikin, third place at Richland, fourth place at Eastern, fifth place at Olympia, and first place in the Sectional tournament. Tony Moore received four All-Tournament team selections, while Bob Nannini received three.

GUIDE CLUB INTRODUCES NEW STUDENTS

The Guide Club, under the direction of Mrs. Glasson, was service oriented. Students learned to listen to and relate with their peers, to introduce new students, to serve as guides during parent-teacher conferences, and to assist in the Guidance Office. During the holidays, members remembered others at the Friendship Center. They met in the mornings before school, and the group was open to all students who wanted to join.

Guide Officers were Kim Haynes, Tisha Hawkins, and Chris Dodd.

Library Club officers are president, Mike Spainhour, and secretary, Paula Thrasher.

LIBRARY COMPUTERIZES HOLDINGS

The library club had ten members. The goal for the year was to computerize the library for circulation and inventory. Students helped in the process by barcoding books, pulling cards, indicating prices, and by refiling book cards. Students were also trained to operate the computer.

ART STUDENTS WIN 39 HONORS

During the 1986-87 school year, students in art won thirty-nine honors, including four national awards. They exhibited their art work in two community shows, the Illinois Power Exhibit in October and the Youth Art Month Exhibit in March. Events included the Le Lycee Exhibit at Warner Public Library in April, the Honors Exhibit at Warner Public Library in May, and the Band Concert and Art Show at the high school in May. Art Club members decorated windows at McDonald's on four occasions, including a display for the Monopoly Games. They helped with three theatrical productions: An Evening of Comedy, The Odd Couple, and Oklahoma. They went on a field trip to Allerton Park, made repairs to the Christmas float for the Chamber of Commerce, painted banners for downtown businesses during the Homecoming festivities, painted a four foot by fifteen foot banner for the Illinois High School Theater Festival, helped hang the CEA Winter Art Exhibit in the high school library, and lettered award certificates for the office. Other events included sponsoring the Honor's Exhibit Opening Reception on May 19th, and providing frames for three of the Purchase Prize selections out of the Le Lycee and Honors Exhibits for donation to the DeWitt County Nursing Home.

SUPER SECS GO COED

The Super Secretaries had a good year with 30 members, including the first guy ever, Mike Spainhour. They held their annual Christmas Tea on December 22 at Mrs. Nelson's house. Valentines were made for the people in DeWitt County Nursing Home for Valentine's Day in February. In March two State Farm secretaries, former members of the club, spoke about their experiences in the work force. A great dinner at the Maverick Steak House was also another activity the club enjoyed.

D.O. CLUB SETS UP FUND

This year's Diversified Occupations classes were large and quite distinctive. The occupations students were engaged in ranged from automotive mechanic training to teacher's aide. Many worthwhile lessons were learned and good times were had by all. The D.O. Club decided to set up a scholarship fund for future D.O. students so that they may be able to enter post-secondary training after their graduation. Approximately three hundred and fifty dollars was raised to get the fund started.

COUNCIL MODIFIES EXAMS

Student Council had a very successful and rewarding year. The year began with some changes in Homecoming. The coronation took place at the dance and a king was crowned. Some of the committees acquired for the school new benches and trees which were planted in the spring. A senior finals committee went to the school board and made it possible for seniors receiving an "A" third and fourth nine weeks to be exempt from the final exam.

Officers—Shannon Taylor, secretary; Tracy Matthews, parliamentarian; Barbara Schaumburg, president; Chad Bolser, vice-president; and Sheila Short, treasurer.

CLUB PUBLISHES GEARHEAD GAZETTE

During the 1986-87 school year, the Auto Mechanics Club participated in and sponsored many different activities. The activities included cleaning DeWitt County road signs, entering a float in the Homecoming Parade, operating the concession stand at many athletic events, inviting community speakers to conduct service training sessions, publishing "The Gearhead Gazette," offering auto repairs to teachers and staff, and inviting representatives from community colleges and technical schools to talk to club members.

Officers—Front row: Mike Reid, treasurer; Phil Short, secretary; and Artie Fornshell, vice-president. Row 2: Larry Fabris, president.

CHORUS MEMBERS HOST FALL EXCHANGE CONCERT

The Clinton High School Chorus hosted a fall exchange concert with University High School during Illinois Arts Week in October. This was the third year that an exchange concert was held. During the concert, Mrs. Yuba Honn, a former music teacher in the Clinton schools, was presented a corsage and birthday wishes as both choruses sang "Happy Birthday." The annual Christmas Concert was held December 16. A carol sing-along for the audience, many solos and ensembles, and a swing choir were included in the festivities. Eighteen chorus members participated in the IHSA Solo and Ensemble Contest at Mt. Pulaski High School on April 25. Two duets and seven soloists won Division I ratings. The spring concert, "Chorus '87," was held in the air-conditioned library due to a spring heat wave. It was a "cool" concert in many ways.

MR. COLLER BIDS FAREWELL

The 1986-87 school year was a successful and busy year for the Clinton High School bands. The marching band participated in four football halftime shows, the homecoming parade, and the Clinton Christmas Parade. The CHS pep band was ranked by the Illinois High School Association as one of the "sweet sixteen" class A pep bands. The pep band performed for all of the boys' home basketball games and pep assemblies. The jazz band held a special jazz night at the high school along with the CJHS jazz band and the Leisure Time Jazz Band, which is made up of graduates of CHS. The Clinton High School concert band enjoyed its most successful season in many years. They traveled to Washington, D.C., received a Division I rating at the IHSA state contest, performed a Christmas concert, a spring concert, a concert for the fourth and fifth graders, and held their annual Concert-A-Thon.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS LIKE TO HELP OTHERS

The Future Homemakers of America started off the 1986-87 school year with a fund raising activity out at the good ole' snack shack on Homecoming Game night. In addition, the members pooled their resources to earn money by helping out the Clinton Exchange Club at their booth at the Apple and Pork Festival, selling kitchen and cooking accessories, and making and selling Christmas tree ornaments, including chances for a patchwork Christmas tree skirt, which was raffled off the day that students were let out for vacation. FHA kept its tradition for sponsoring, along with the Exchange Club, the annual canned food drive at the high school. This year, classes were in competition for overall total cans contributed, and the winning first hour classes were in competition with each other as well. The winning class for this year was the Class of '89, and Mrs. Wunderlich's first hour class was the one class which consistently donated the most cans each day.

Miss Farley and Mrs. Hogan were the co-sponsors of FHA again this year.

Officers: Dawn Schmid, Mike Hunt, Ted DeMent, Robert Reed, Julie Shobe, Richard Nelson, Brad Miller, Mr. Prather, and John Clifton.

FFA ELECTS SHOBE

Robert Reed was selected as the Chapter's representative for the heritage trip to Washington, D.C., and John Savage and Robert attended FFA Leadership Camp at East Bay. Julie Shobe was elected the first female president of the Chapter, and Mr. Bernard replaced Mr. Adams as one of the Chapter advisors. The FFA Alumni Chapter purchased a combine for use on the soybean plot. Experience was gained in operating and repairing it. The members also began working with the Christmas tree plot; the first sale was to the high school library.

LETTERMEN PROMOTE WRESTLING EVENT

The Lettermen's Club was run under the supervision of Mr. Nagel and Mr. Goodwin. The club has not been very active over the last few years, but in 1986-87 the club began to become an active part of the school system. Although the event was not a success financially, a professional wrestling exhibition was put on in March. It provided entertainment and was a beginning for the club. To raise money throughout the year, the Lettermen sponsored the concession stand for such events as the Clinton Carnival, Corn Belt Conference Meet, and the Boys Sectional Track Meet. The future now looks brighter for the Lettermen's club, thanks to the 1986-87 members.

MONROE ORGANIZES CHESS CLUB

The newly formed Clinton Chess Club first met in January. Due to track and other school activities the seventeen members dwindled to eight for the "St. Valentine's Day Massacre" Tournament in Georgetown on February 14. The State Tournament was held March 20 and 21 at Normal U-High. The team hopes to participate in League play with seven other schools during the 1987-88 season.

SPORTS

GOLFERS TIE SCHOOL RECORD

Brian Adcock won second place at the regional tournament.

Matt Michel was chosen as most valuable player.

The 1986 golf team had a 15-5-1 meet record this year, tying the school record for the most wins in season set back in 1981. The team also garnered third place showings at the Prairie Central Invitational, the Cornbelt Conference Championship, and the IHSA Regional at Stonington; the latter led to a bid in the sectionals at ISU, where Matt Michel finished twelfth. Matt also set a school record by shooting a 32 at the Country Club in a meet against Mahomet. Senior Brian Adcock set another school record by having the lowest career average, 42. Matt and Brian also placed in the Prairie Central, Cornbelt, and regional tournaments.

HARRIERS FINISH 4TH AT CONFERENCE

Rob Carter shows the form that makes him successful.

The Cross Country team had a dual meet record of 6-4 in the 1986 season. They finished third in their own Clinton Invitational, fourth in the Cornbelt Conference, which was won by state champion Pontiac, and sixth in the regionals. One individual did qualify out of the regional; freshman Clint Bolser finished tenth to extend his season. Clint finished fortieth in sectionals, which was a fine showing for a freshman. The future looks bright for the Clinton team, with returning juniors Rob Carter, Phil Short, Brett Forsberg, and Michael Hunt providing leadership, and freshmen Clint Bolser, Bill Ipsen, and Scott Morlock continue to improve.

The girls did not have a full team this year but did compete as individuals and had some fine showings. The girls run in a one-class system, A and AA together; this makes the competition very tough. The team did not have anyone qualify from the regional although Brenda Keeling, who had a fine season, missed by two places.

LADY MAROONS MAKE HISTORY

The 1986 Volleyball team had a very successful year. For the first time in Clinton High School history, the girls volleyball team won over twenty games; the final record was 21-6. The team also beat every conference opponent at least once. The Lady Maroons tied for first place in the cornbelt conference with an 8-2 record. This year's team was probably most noted for their excellent "quick" set, a short set reaching a height of one foot above the net. This is a very difficult skill because both players must have perfect timing. The team had many loyal fans that enjoyed the excitement of the games. The team placed two players on the All-Conference First Team, Keri PUNCHES and Shannon TAYLOR.

MAROONS PLAY STRONG SCHEDULE

Although the Maroons finished the season with a 4-5 record, Coach Goodwin felt it was "successful and enjoyable in many ways." The Maroons went to the "Run and Shoot" offense and were very exciting to watch. The Maroons may have been very small in size, but they were very big in heart.

The Maroons played one of the strongest schedules in the state, as four of their opponents made the state playoffs. Even in defeat, the Maroons played tough, for example, the hard-fought loss to St. Teresa 20-14. St. Teresa went on to finish second in the state. For the first time the Maroons played Maroa, whose team has a fine tradition and an outstanding program. After a slow start, Clinton went on to record a 33-0 win. Also, the Maroons beat Central Catholic 14-7 for the first time in ten years. The motto "Together Today, Victory Tomorrow," was well represented by the 1986 Clinton Maroons football team.

FROSH-SOPHS SHOW PROMISE

The sophomore team completed the season with two wins and five losses. The game against Mahomet was probably the best game of the season even though it was a loss. The Maroons put up an exceptional fight and scored against the previously unmarked team.

The freshman football team had six wins and only two losses. The coaches' favorite game of the season was the victory over previously unbeaten U-High on the astroturf at ISU. With four years work and discipline, this group has the ability to reach the playoffs by their senior year.

LADY MAROONS TAKE REGIONAL

The Clinton Girls Basketball team defeated Tri-Valley to win the Regional title. They concluded the season with a 49-41 loss to Olympia in the Pontiac Sectional. The players ended up with a 5-5 record in the Cornbelt Conference. Clinton placed one player, Shannon Taylor, on the first team All-Conference. Steph Lappin and Tonya Torbert were named to the second All-Conference team.

MAROONS MAKE SWEET SIXTEEN

The varsity basketball record was 13-16, which included two victories over Mahomet Seymour, a win over Bloomington Central Catholic in the "Pit," the first Regional Championship since 1961, as well as a Sectional Championship over Olympia, who had beaten them twice during the regular season. The Sectional Championship put the Maroons in the class A Sweet Sixteen.

BOYER, CASE ADVANCE TO STATE

The Clinton High School wrestling team had a very successful year in 1986-87. Seven individuals qualified for the sectional tournament at U-High. Of those, two wrestlers advanced to the state tournament at the University of Illinois. Corey Case lost a tough match in the first round, and Trent Boyer made it all the way to the third round before losing to the eventual state champion Mahomet. The team also fared well in the conference, placing second behind state champion Mahomet.

MANY RECORDS FALL BY THE WAYSIDE

The 1987 Girls Track team had a successful year in both team and individual competitions. Seniors Lynne Dyer, Keri Punches, Anna-Lena Skarin, and Julie Shobe were co-captains for the year. The multi-faceted squad ended the year with a 15-8 dual meet record. During the season, fourteen school records and fifty-seven personal records fell by the wayside. In sectional competition, Brenda Keelin finished fifth in the 3200, and Keri Punches placed first in both the 200 and the 400. In addition, the "Deadly Medley," which consisted of Leslie Martin, Banita Butcher, Julie Shobe, and Keri Punches, placed second. At state, Keri placed sixth in both the 200 and the 400. The 800 "Deadly Medley" team also finished sixth after being ranked fifteenth before the meet.

CARTER REPEATS

The 1986-87 Boys Track team had success throughout their season; however, much of their success came after the regular season ended. The team placed third at the sectional meet, qualifying two individuals and two relay teams for state in the process. At state, the team placed in a tie for twelfth. Rob Carter repeated as the state champion in the 800 meter run. During the year, Rob also broke the state record in the 800. The 1600 meter relay team, which consisted of Dave Innis, Rex Paullin, Mark Sphar, and Rob Carter, finished seventh at the state meet. In addition, five new school records were set in the school year.

TAYLOR VOTED MVP

The girls softball team had another successful year in 1987. The team ended the year with a 15-7 record in all games and a 7-3 conference record. Special awards were given to Shannon Taylor, MVP and most stolen bases; Tonya Torbert, hardest worker; Tracy Matthews, most RBI's; Stephanie Lappin, best bat; Kari Connelly, most improved; Amy Winchell, best glove; and Frances Bateson, rookie of the year.

MAROONS SCORE BIG

The varsity baseball team closed the season with a 13-12 record. The Maroons placed second in the Cornbelt Conference with three members named to the All-Conference team. These were Troy Willoughby, Russ Hickman, and Mike Stokowski. The junior varsity team finished with a 16-11 record.

“M” SQUAD PERFORMS

The “M” Squad performed at the DeWitt Co. Labor Day Parade, Homecoming parade, Christmas parade, and Farmer City Christmas parade. The girls also performed for the Kenney Civic League and for Back to School Days. Each year the members conduct a Kiddie Clinic for girls Kindergarten through fifth grade. This year’s captains were Lanette Fatheree, Nancy Poe, and Jodi Murphy.

The Clinton High School Cheerleaders have always been proud to represent such a fine athletic department. The Cheerleaders had a busy year which meant practice twice a week at 7:00 a.m. Breakfast was served on occasion to the football and basketball teams. Tradition continued with a children's clinic for 100 little hopefuls. To help raise money and spirit, the squads held several types of contest, such as sexy legs, jelly bean, and "M and M." The girls finished the year by holding tryouts and attending camp with their squad.

PRESIDENT OFFERS FAREWELL

When the senior class first entered high school, we were ornery, scheming, partying young boys and girls. After four LONG years at Clinton High, we turned into ornery, scheming, partying young adults. Senior year is meant for a class to join together and to become close because when the year is over, everyone goes their separate ways. Our senior class has done just that by working on our first place float (finally, a float that can withstand the weight of the ribbon), selling candy bars for two years, and taking a field trip to the Poison Control Center after eating a cookie display at the Homestead. Athletics is another field where our class has shone by producing conference, regional, and sectional championships in several sports. No one person makes a class great; it's the class as a whole that comes together in painful times and in happy times. Although we lost two very special friends along the way, in our prayers and thoughts, they are with us every day. When we graduate, our memories will stay with us forever.

FACULTY

The Board of Education's major accomplishments that have affected Clinton Community High School in the last year include the following:

- Completing scheduled subject area departmental presentations prior to each regular board meeting. Presentations were designed to familiarize Board Members with the high school instructional program.
- Establishing summer school gifted and talented program
- Continuing to expand instructional computer programs.
- Purchasing computer hardware and software for administrative application (student data, scheduling, word processing, attendance, etc.)
- Purchasing computer hardware and software for the high school library.
- Purchasing new IBM typewriters for the business department.
- Purchasing new band uniforms.
- Authorizing the following improvements to the high school building and grounds: installing new lockers in boys' locker room, remodeling the stadium and purchasing new weight machines, improving the physical education and athletic fields, and refinishing the gym floor.

COMPUTERS FACILITATE SCHEDULING

The computerization of schedules, attendance sheets, and grade cards was one of the many accomplishments of Mr. Bauersachs during his second year as principal. A computer was also placed in the library to aid with circulation.

Prior to the opening of school, the football stadium established a weight facility, and the gym floor received a refinishing facelift.

The elimination of homerooms brought mixed responses from both students and teachers alike. Many students started school at 8:30 instead of 8:15, the former homeroom time. Many other students used the 8:00-8:30 time slot to make up tests, get teacher assistance, and study for classes.

For the 1987-88 school year, many teachers received a change in room assignments. The room changes were designed to give teachers in the same departments easier access to one another. Weighted grading was also researched by Mr. Bauersachs and the department heads.

Finally, the class of 1987 saw the return of a valedictorian and salutatorian to the graduation ceremonies.

FACULTY SUMS UP THE YEAR

Mr. Bernard became a part of the Agriculture-Industrial Department this year, teaching agriculture machinery and power, D.O., and helping as FFA advisor. Mr. Adams teaches auto mechanics and serves as Auto Club sponsor. Mr. Burger, metals teacher, continued as vocational director and golf coach. Mr. Blessing, drafting and woods teacher, had a successful year as basketball coach. Finally, Mr. Prather, who teaches agriculture classes, was department head and FFA advisor.

The Business Department is looking forward to setting up a computer lab of IBM PC's and incorporating two new business courses (Business Information Processing and Business Communications) into the curriculum for the '87-'88 school year. Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. Allison participated in OPERATION '86, a state-sponsored program linking teachers with businesses in the area for a total of 160 hours of work experience. They have also been involved in regional reorganization plans set forth by the state, which help set curriculum and equipment requirements for vocational classes throughout the state.

During the 1986-87 school year, the English Department staff has been involved in working on several committees dealing with the Illinois State Mandated Learner Objectives, which involved much time and effort on the part of Mrs. Wunderlich, Mr. Kiick, Mrs. Triezenberg, and Mr. Adcock. This work precedes the writing of learner objectives for each course and the making out and giving of tests in the near future, one of which will be created by the state. In addition to these committees, Mrs. Neps and Mrs. Wunderlich have been involved in attending gifted conferences and building their freshman and sophomore gifted programs. A possible addition for the 1987-88 school year is a class in gifted American literature and history. Also, all department members have agreed that all freshman be required to write a "term-paper" as a part of the class requirements, replacing some of the four themes required per nine weeks' period.

Newly created this year is the Fine Arts Department, which is headed by Mrs. Jones. Within the department, Mrs. Jones teaches speech and drama, Mr. Collier teaches band, and Mr. Bryant teaches art.

The Home Economics Department offers classes for students interested in foods and nutrition, interior design, child care and development, as well as clothing, textiles and fashion, and consumerism. Creative cookery and fashion accents and accessories are the two new course offerings and have sparked new interest in the program. The fashion class has been fortunate to have hosted several speakers and provided "live models" throughout the year.

Mr. Harden has taught at the high school for 30 years, longer than any other staff member.

The Math Department has changed very little in its composition for several years. The department is comprised of Mr. Wylder, Mrs. Trent, Mr. Diener, Mr. Cors, and Mr. Munds. In addition, Mr. Monroe also teaches one Algebra I class. Computer Literacy was offered for the first time this year. There are hopes for adding a class in discrete math for next year's juniors and seniors.

The Science Department faculty of Clinton High School all kept busy last summer. Mr. White and Mr. Monroe attended a seminar on nuclear power at Pennsylvania State University; Mrs. Kline worked on the Weldon Springs Advisory Board and on her farm; Mr. Lehman directed the corn detassling and went fishing and deer hunting; and Mr. Strain worked with new forms and procedures. There were new textbooks in physics and Biology II. Over 369 students took some science class at Clinton High School this year. The department acquired some new equipment for this school year. It acquired a new computer and printer, a big air track, a new weather station, and an EKG machine. In the future, the department hopes to recruit more students to take biology, chemistry, and physics. It is also hoped that someday all students at CCHS will be expected to take two years of science as a requirement for graduation.

The members of the Social Studies Department are Mrs. Neps, Mrs. Laffey, Mr. Schultz, Mr. Zartler, and Mr. Triezenberg. Two teachers, Miss Farley and Mr. Kiick, each teach one class within the department. Both history and foreign language are taught in the department. This year, there has been a large increase in the number of geography classes and a new book, World Geography: People and Places, was adopted.

The 1986-1987 year was another good year for Student Services. Marie Gormley, new to CCHS, tutored students individually and in small groups; Wally Urban continues to provide a vocational emphasis in math, English, and social studies. Librarian Barbara Blackburn added computer interest inventories to the freshman library orientation. During the fall conferences, counselors Stuart Coon and Carolyn Glasson shared the results with the students and their parents. Happily, over 90 percent of freshman parents were in for the session to participate in planning and course selection. In a continuing effort to communicate with parents, Student Services prepared and mailed five newsletters as well as numerous listings of scholarships that were available to students. Joan Lewis assists with tutoring, career information, and general office management. Filing student records and information is done by Mary Ellen Junkert. Finally, new to student services is Mary Wilkinson, who manages reception, appointments, and secretarial duties for the counselors as well as for the athletic director. *At the time of this publication, pictures for Mrs. Triezenberg and Mr. Williams were unavailable.

On the morning of May 8, forty-six very tired seniors slowly rolled to the front doors of the high school at around 3:00 A.M. This was the earliest attendance of the year for these seniors, but they didn't seem to mind because they would soon be in the hot Florida sun to enjoy the memories of 1987's Senior Class Trip.

The seniors boarded two school buses which took them on the long journey to the St. Louis Airport. While many slept through this event-filled bus ride, the majority of the seniors were entertained by the amateur (and we stress amateur) singing talents of Corey Case and John Clifton. St. Louis was awakened by the sound of long ago television theme songs as the bus pulled to a stop outside of the St. Louis Airport around 6:30. All of the seniors were aroused and revived from the long, sleepless night, which proved to be the first of many.

After purchasing his flying insurance, Rich Peterson led the faithful troops onto the airplane for the flight to Orlando. Inside the aircraft, the Clinton group began to display their photographic skills. As Lynne Dyer and Mandee Bruce continued to capture these memories, most became comfortable for the flight to Atlanta. Soon after the plane took off, the seniors found themselves walking in that hot Florida sunshine.

After a brief stop at the hotel to change, the exhausted seniors made their way for a day of wet and wild excitement. Going to a waterpark was a new experience, and many were captivated by the seventy-six foot straight-drop slide. A few wet-headed, brave (or shall we say stupid) souls made their way through the line, while others watched Mr. Lehman make his way down a nearby waterslide. At 5 P.M. the seniors made their way back to the hotel to relax.

The evening was filled with a rowdy miniature golf game and some exploring of Orlando before they settled into their rooms for the night, with the calling of Domino's Pizza delivery concluding the festivities.

Saturday morning came early as the seniors boarded the bus for the exploration of EPCOT Center. While the seniors journeyed to every corner of the world, mother nature was brewing up a little rainstorm, which soon sent the wet-headed travelers back to the hotel. Back at the hotel, many decided to enjoy the pool, while others began to get ready for the tiring finale of the trip. After dinner, the sharp-dressed seniors boarded the bus for an all-senior, all-night graduation party at Walt Disney World. As the excited seniors got lost in the shuffle of the crowd, the park became the site for hours of pure fun. By the time the seniors made their way back to the bus at 5 A.M., it looked as if many of the tired bodies could use a much-needed rest.

After packing and cleaning the rooms up (or should we say rebuilding the rooms), the tired seniors slowly said good-bye to Florida and dragged their bags onto the airplane, which soon dropped them off safely. Around 7:30 P.M. the exhausted seniors filed off the bus and made their way home.

Awarding of Diplomas ..... Stephen Tuggle

Benediction ..... Pastor H.B. Livengood

Recessional ..... "Pomp and Circumstance" ..... Edward Elgar

(The audience will please remain seated during Benediction and Recessional)

Honor stoles are presented to Graduates who have maintained a 3.51 average or higher for all years of high school attendance.

Clockwise from upper right: Robin Taylor plays for the last time in the high school band; Julie Shobe and Darren Korneman share the last few moments as high school students; Gary Short, Ted DeMent, John Clifton, Brad Miller, and Robert Reid patiently wait for the commencement to begin; the senior choir sings "That's What Friends Are For"; Tammy Norrington assists Lanette Fatheree with her National Honor Society pin; "Jim, it's almost over!"

Clockwise from lower right: Seniors donned their sunglasses and flicked their Bics; Rich Roth gives his donation in pennies (money collected was given to the Debra K. Taylor and Jimmy Joe Jiles memorial funds); Mr. Bauersachs congratulates Brian Adeock on being the valedictorian; "Friends for Life" was the senior theme as demonstrated by these seniors.

IN MEMORY OF JIMMY JOE JILES

When you recall your wonderful high school days, remember also, "one" you loved and laughed with, Jimmy Joe Jiles. Your mind will recall the tangle of blondish hair that seemed to have order, even when wind blown and ruffled, the blue eyes that sparkled with joy and life, the quick devilish grin, slightly cocked to one side, and the hard body of a young athlete, tanned brown by the summer sun. Natural ability, talent, and confidence made this young man a success at anything he tried. Those who knew him well—knew an honest, sincere, openly loving spirit. Though Joe, in this life, cannot be touched or held again, his spirit will live in your heart each time you ask it to. In his absence, his family and loved ones thank you, with his blessings.

—James Joseph Jiles

Left: Mike Koeberlein donned his shades for the recessional. Above: Jason Trent spent his senior year as an exchange student to Denmark.

Editor—Senior Section, Faculty Section—Brian Adcock

Advertising Manager—Katy Lowers

Business Manager—Brett Forsberg

Volume 64 of the CLINTONIA was produced by a small group of yearbook students at Clinton High School, Route 54 West, Clinton, Illinois 61727. The yearbook was printed by Inter-Collegiate Press of Shawnee Mission, Kansas, as part of its Pioneer Program, company paste-up.

Page size is 8 x 10 5/8, printed on 80# enamel paper stock. The liner is of liner vellum. Headlines are in 30 point Tiffany Bold with 10 point body copy and 8 point captions. The original cover was designed by Lynne Dyer with the assistance of Mr. Zimmerman, the ICP representative. The laminated cover is white special litho cloth with four color.

Photography was provided by Rembrandt Studios, Inc. of Peoria, Illinois. Student photographer was Lynne Dyer.

Three hundred books were ordered, 170 of which were personalized with black hotstamping. Books sold for $17.50 through January 5. After that, all books sold for $20. Personalized covers sold for an extra $1.
